

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

Prime Sheep & Lamb Sale 25th January 2017

Swan Hill agents yarded 5888 head for the first sale of 2018. Quality was average to good with a mix of light weight, trade weight and heavy lambs penned. A regular field of processor, domestic and export buyers attended and operated strongly in a solid market. The best heavy lambs made to $207, with the heavier trade weights selling from $140 to $167/head. Trade weight Dorper lambs were in large numbers and sold from $101 to $142 with the export weights selling from $120 to $171/head.

The sheep offering covered all weights and grades. Not all the buyers operated fully with sheep however, sold to a steady demand.

Heavy hogget's sold from $145/head to $163/head.
