

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

Prime Sheep & Lamb Sale 4th of April 2018

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange held its regular Sheep & Lambs sale this week with Agents yarding 6580 head. With a good line up of lambs on offer, heavy lambs held firm to $5/head dearer with the top pen reaching $190/head. Trade lambs also held firm topping at $164/head. Mutton sold dearer when compared to sales prior to Easter. This sale saw the introduction of sheep RFID scanning to ensure that stock are identified in accordance with introduced legislation. This enables movements between properties and sale venues to be effectively and rapidly tracked to ensure the integrity of the Australian Livestock Industry. Note that a curfew of 10am on sale day has been implemented to ensure the timely capture of accurate data.
