

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

Prime Sheep & Lamb Sale 2nd June 2016

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange prime lamb market on Thursday 2nd June saw agents assemble another large yarding consisting 8,561 lambs, 290 hoggets and 619 mutton. The sale presented an excellent quality yarding across all grades, with an outstanding supply of export lambs encouraging strong competition amongst all our regular buyers.

Heavy export lambs saw strong demand increasing by $10 to $15/head. Trade and supermarket lambs increased by $10 to $12/head. Prices for merino and dorper lambs lifted by $5 to $10/head with heavy merino lambs reaching $168/head. With limited numbers of sheep on offer, prices remained strong to finish $10/head dearer from last fortnight.

Nathan Hayward from Piangil with his exceptional quality very heavy export lambs topping the market at $209/head
