Prime Sheep & Lamb Sale 5th May 2016

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange prime lamb market on Thursday 5th May saw agents yard a much larger yarding consisting 8,270 lambs, 478 hoggets and 1,160 mutton. With an excellent quality yarding in all weights and grades, the supply of heavy export lambs and the large consignments of crossbred and dorper breeds sold to spirited competition.

An excellent yarding of heavy lambs sold to stronger demand to be $5 to $7/head dearer, selling to a top of $182/head from Kooloonong vendor Carinya Ag. Trade lambs were limited in supply and sold $5 to $8 dearer. A large run of dorper lambs in all weights and grades sold to very strong competition with the lighter end going to restockers. Some very good merino lambs were on offer selling to $131/head to be $5/head dearer. A small yarding of mutton drew very strong competition reaching $112/head.
