

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

PRIME CATTLE MARKET REPORT 27TH OCTOBER 2016

Swan Hill agent's yarded 1100 head in an overall good quality offering for the regular fortnightly cattle sale at the Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange.

With a reduced field of buyers, prices followed similar trends to other selling centres with reductions across most weights and grades.

Heavy cows, over 500kg sold up to 20c/kg cheaper on last fortnight with a sale top of 246c/kg while lighter cows sold 10c/kg cheaper, ranging between 190 - 220c/kg for the better quality.

A reduced number of bullocks, which mostly presented in excellent condition, sold up to 20 - 30c/kg cheaper, topping at 309.6c/kg.

A large line up of trade and vealer cattle sold slightly cheaper than last fortnight with the best quality vealers ranged between 378 and 390c/kg and secondary types selling between 340 and 360c/kg.
