

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

PRIME CATTLE MARKET REPORT 8th December 2016

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange hosted its last fortnightly cattle sale for 2016 with just over 550 head. A smaller than usual field of buyer were present with most cattle sold firm to slightly cheaper than last fortnight.

A limited supply of bullocks sold mostly between 280c/kg to 300.c/kg. A run of mainly northern cows sold between 190c/kg to 220c/kg with better end ranging between 220 to 240c/kg. A smaller offering of vealers met limited competition and sold mainly between 340c/kg to 365c/kg. A few smaller store calves were penned and sold to strong competition from mainly local buyers, making up to 450c/kg for 150kg calves.

On behalf of the Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange and Swan Hill Associated Agents we wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a prosperous new year. Sales will recommence in 2016 on 19th January for our first prime sheep and lamb sale and, 2nd February for cattle.
