

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

PRIME CATTLE MARKET REPORT 2nd February 2017

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange hosted its first cattle sale for 2017. With a yarding of almost 900 head.

Heavy well finished cattle sold to firm rates, while plainer type and light store calves met strong demand with competition from feed lotters and local re-stockers. Most better quality cows ranged between 218c/kg and 240 c/kg.

A limited supply of bullocks saw prices top at 325c/kg with most ranging between 275 and 295c/kg. A good run of supplementary grade cattle ranged in prices of 315c/kg and 338c/kg, at 342c/kg. Fewer pens of lighter store calves under 280kg sold to strong demand with the best making up to 420c/kg.
