

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

PRIME CATTLE MARKET REPORT 8th June 2017

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange held its fortnightly Prime Cattle sale with agents yarding 450 cattle, 90 fewer than previous fortnight in a mixed quality offering.

A reduced number of cows saw prices remain firm for the better quality, while plainer lighter cows sold 8 to 15c/kg cheaper on last fortnight. A reduced run of heavy steers and grain fed cattle sold firm to 8c/kg less with two export buyers absent. Feeder cattle 300kg to 350kg were 5 to 8c/kg easier, with best quality making to 343c/kg.

A limited supply of vealers sold to firm rates for better quality while the balance sold 5 to 8c/kg cheaper than last fortnights sale.
