

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

PRIME CATTLE MARKET REPORT 23rd NOVEMBER 2017

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange hosted its fortnightly prime cattle market on Thursday 23rd November with a slightly smaller yarding from previous sales yarding a total of 797 head.

An excellent run of cattle were presented to the usual buyers. With only a limited number of cows on offer, prices sold firm to slightly cheaper on recent sales. An excellent line of trade cattle were presented, which sold strongly making 2-5c/kg dearer on previous weeks.

Lighter cattle sold to firm rates, with some very good vealers selling slightly cheaper. Fewer store cattle were offered seeing prices increase by 5-10c/kg.
