

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

Prime Sheep & Lamb Sale 9th of March 2018

Swan Hill Regional Livestock exchange held our regular fortnightly sale this week yarding just over 4000 head. Whilst there were a few pens of well finished trade & export lambs, overall the yard saw mostly plainer type stock.

With some of the regular buying group absent the market saw a fluctuating trend due to smaller lot sizes.

With less heavy lambs on offer we saw heavy export lamb prices peak at $195/head. Higher numbers of smaller Dopers lambs were offered by agents to a limited demand by restockers this week reaching $95/head.

Holding their value, trade weight lambs reached $169/head.

Mutton held reasonably firm to peak at $121/head
