

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

PRIME CATTLE MARKET REPORT 10th May 2018

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange saw agents yard 840 Head including around 260 Northern Store Cattle for this week's market. There were a few yards of good grain fed stock on offer. Cows & secondary cattle were down slightly from last fortnight ago. Bucking the trend was Trade weight Steers & Heifers weighing less than 520kg. Steers weighing over 500kg saw the best support from domestic processors helping to create a strong price trend.

Agents Store cattle seen very good buying support from Lockington, Ouyen, Barham, local Agents and Producers.

Steers, Heifers and Bull Calves in a varying weight range sold to solid competition seeing Steers range from $500/head to $660/head. Heifers seen prices between $390/head to $535/head. Bull Calves ranged between $285/head to $480/head.
