

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange

Prime Sheep & Lamb Sale 26th of July 2018

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange lamb numbers lifted again for this week's regular Sheep & Lamb Sale. Agent's yarded 13,389 head.

Competition amongst buyers was mostly drawn out, due to the dry conditions & high prices.

We saw the first run of suckers for this season, although numbers were limited; prices stayed in line with current sale trends, prices topped at $226/head. Heavy lambs sold to strong demand even with two processors not operating fully. Trade lambs were also well supported by buyers, Merino lambs with cover and skin had good support. Mutton prices fell slightly from a fortnight ago but still saw impressive rates across all grades and weights.
