Prime Sheep & Lamb Sale 20th September 2018

This week's market saw numbers decline to 12000 head in a plainer yarding than we have seen previously. Prices for quality new & old lambs dropped across the board by $20/head to $30/head reflecting the cheapening nationwide trend. Our core buying group attended but a weaker demand was seen due to some major processors being absent. A small number of pens with significant weight & finish sold to $229/head, however this yarding was dominated by lighter lambs showing the impacts of a dry season. Some lines of smaller Store lambs sold to producers from $96/head to $106/head however mostly plainer suckers were on offer. Mutton quality & prices also eased staying on trend with nationwide quotations. However a few stand out pens reached $150/head.
