

Swan Hill Regional Livestock Exchange
Prime Sheep & Lamb Sale 19th September 2019

Agents offered an excellent yarding at this week's Sheep & Lamb sale in Swan Hill. New season lambs are entering the yards in greater numbers. The combination of increased weights and increased average prices of lambs has seen the value of early new season lamb increase to $15/head to $20/head. The reappearance of a supermarket buyer assisted in competition for Trade weight lambs to finish $10/head to $15/head dearer on last fortnight's quotations. Old lambs were pushed to $4/head to $5/head dearer as were Merino lambs. A great line of new season Dorper lambs was presented & gained $8/head to $10/head on similar offerings at the last sale. Mutton eased to finish $5/head cheaper.
